Server Roll'n Plugin

By Antithasys

Description:

Plays a song and displays a message if any team wins with the specified parameters.
Can be set in sourcemod/configs/rollnsonglist.cfg

2.2.2

Fixed Error: Corrected divide by zero error in gap mode

Fixed Error: Corrected start advertisements cvar not passing through to the actual ad

Fixed Error: Made start advertisements only display once per round start

2.2.1

Fixed Error: Added start advertisements to a timer so they display properly

2.2.0

New Feature: Added player gap mode (Arena Mode Only)

New Feature: Added round start advertisements to display roll requirements

Fixed Error: Map loads no longer load the plugin.serverrolln.cfg file so timers can be set per map

2.1.1

Fixed Error: Win mode now bypasses sm_roltime

2.1.0

New Feature: Added Win mode to play different songs on consecutive wins (currently buggy)

2.0.2

Fixed Error: Sound events on stalemate rounds will no longer play

2.0.1

Code Change: Converted minutes to seconds so it can now be set to under 1 min

2.0.0

Initial Release

Started with v2.0 because v1.0 was not released

Future Updates:

Add different music for different teams (requires pushing song to each client)

Fix team switch events for win mode (i.e. arena scrambles and cp team switches)

Now we need some songs to add to the list.

We can have the following different types of song events:

Plays a default song

Plays a song for a specific map

Plays different songs as your team consecutively wins

Plays a song when the winning team has more than X% alive left alive in arena mode

So we have the need for a bunch of different songs. Right now we use some that Caca and I came up with, but we are looking for suggestions from community members as to what to add.

I personally love "What is love? Baby don't hurt me"

Equally hilarious would be "oops I did it again" by Britney Spears for a team that repeats a steam rolling.

For arena, if 80% of your team lives (that's four out of every five) maybe play "It's Raining Men" by the Weathergirls.

Also, not sure where it'd be applicable, but "Don't Worry Be Happy" by Bobby McFerrin has hilarious potential as well.

Can't Touch this--Hammer Time (MC Hammer)

for either x% alive in arena or consecutive wins...

Can u make it when u get uberd it plays "invincible by pat benatar"

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uJLCypVk1uQ>

from 0:54- 1:08

if u could do that, that would be cool

I think I'd stop playing medic all together, tbh.

Same here, I'm fine with it being at the beginning of the round, but, if played during the round, it could disrupt gameplay by hindering the players' ability to hear.

I wouldn't worry about it... I'm just guessing it's a no.

These are all good ideas. Keep them coming. We need a good selection of songs to choose from.

How about some of the built in taunts for tf2. The heavy has some classics....

Here is a link:

Favorite heavy Quotes

All of you are dead
You are so small it is funny to me
Keep crying baby
I was told we would be fighting men
Entire team is baby
I think you need more men
Who sent all these babies to fight?

I hear someone building diaper changing station

Here is the link that you can download the taunts from:

I think if an arena team wins 5 in a row, it needs to play the MC hammer song

Here some more suggestions:

Beck (Loser)
Abba (The winner takes it all)
Queen (We are the champions)
Queen (Another one bites the dust)
Survivor (Eye of the Tiger)
Tina Turner (Simply the Best)
Modern Talking (You can win if you want)
Dr. Alban (Sing Hallelujah)
Patrick Hernandez (Born to be alive)

And since everyone seems to love Haddaway so much here some more recommendation for (mostly) trashy Eurodance, that only loosely fits the topic (but so does "what is love")

2 Unlimited (No Limit)
The Disco Boys (I came for you)
Real 2 Real (I like to move it)
Inner Circle (Sweat)
Culture Beat (Mr. Vain)
Sir Mixalot (Baby Got Back)
The Outthere Brothers (Boom Boom Boom)
Snap (Rhythm is a dancer)
Right Said Fred (I'm to sexy for ...)

Cheers

SilentBob

Nice bob. That is exactly what we are looking for. Keep them coming and we will have a good selection installed this weekend.

As long as you've got "Never Gonna Give You Up" in there, I've got nothing to add ;)

How about Chuck Berry's "My Ding a Ling"...

Gloria Gaynor " I Will Survive.."

The theme from "Mission Impossible" right before the 5 rounds in a row in arena or maybe after Second round for any other map. Have the translations read something like "DO YOU ACCEPT THE MULTI ROUND ROLL'D MISSION?" Then straight into the mission (next round).
